NORTHPORT HONOR SOCIETY ANNUAL DINNER TO BENEFIT NORTHPORT PROMISE

NORTHPORT, MI – Members of the Northport Public School Honor Society have chosen the Northport Promise as the beneficiary of their annual fundraising dinner, planned Tuesday, March 18 from 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Northport School. Tickets for the event are $8 for adults and $5 for children

“The Honor Society decided to raise funds to help the Northport Promise this year,” said advisor Liz Lint. “Five members of the honor society are among the seniors who will benefit from The Northport Promise this year and the other members will be beneficiaries too as they graduate. The students wanted to be contributors to this terrific program.”

Students are planning a pasta dinner including a choice of Alfredo or marinara sauce, meatballs, salad, garlic bread and homemade desserts. Student members of the Honor Society and members of the Northport Promise steering committee will prepare and serve the dinner. Hugh Willey will perform during the evening as will several Northport students.

“The Promise ensures that money is not an issue when choosing a college or career path. It also shows the support I have of my community,” said Shauna Sitarek, a Northport High School junior and National Honor Society member.

Tickets are available by purchasing them from an National Honor Society member, contact Liz Lint at 386-5153, the Filling Station in Northport, at Tamarack Galley in Omena or at the door.

Volunteers or donors who would like to become involved in the Northport Promise effort should contact Sally Viskochil at 218.7485 or 386.5529 or Ruth Steele Walker at 386.5674 or 233.2113.
